We'd like to congratulate all senior games participants. As athletes, you know how important it is to keep up with your health. LaurusHealth can help. Just log on to our Web site and click on My LaurusHealth – the personal health management tool. In a matter of minutes, you'll be more aware of your own health and possible areas of risk. You'll also be able to develop an action plan for areas that need improvement, then track your progress. It's our way of helping seniors like you ask better questions, so together with your doctor you can make better health decisions. Visit LaurusHealth.com today.

Life is our life's work.

There's a lot of life left in these shoes.

The feet that filled these shoes have plenty of miles to go. And Pfizer wants to make it a pleasant trip. That's why we're dedicated to walking hand-in-hand with seniors. Our research is blazing a trail to breakthroughs that will improve your quality of life. Our educational programs are helping you take the initiative in maintaining good health. Our medicines are making strides that were unimaginable even a few years ago.

You've got places to go and things to do. Pfizer can help you get there.

Enjoy Virginia in the spring.

Hampton Roads is perfect for the 2003 Summer National Senior Games.

We have miles of beaches,
great boating and fishing,
outstanding restaurants and shopping,
historic Williamsburg, Yorktown and more within easy reach,
friends you haven't seen since you left the military,
(we have a very high rate of military retirees settled here) and the new home of the USS Wisconsin.

So come to Virginia in the spring. Enjoy real southern hospitality with the 2003 Games.

Hampton Roads' 2003 Summer National Senior Games: May 27-June 9, 2003.

The Ultimate Recognition Of A Memorable Accomplishment

The championship ring has become the universal symbol of athletic achievement. As a participant in the National Senior Games, you have earned the right to wear such a symbol. Every member of the Senior Games family is eligible to purchase one of these unique rings. Designed and manufactured exclusively for the games by National Awards, official supplier of recognition products for the National Senior Games Association, two distinctive designs are offered.

The Participant Ring - A beautiful signet ring featuring the National Senior Games logo in the top with sleek, high polished sides, this beautiful piece of jewelry is offered in men's and women's sizes and in a variety of metals to fit all budgets.

Participant Ring

The Official Medalist Ring - Proudly displaying the name of the medalist and his/her sport on one side and the National Senior Games Association logo and year on the opposite side, the top of this championship style ring features a brilliant red or blue stone available in men's and ladies' sizes and the medal designation.

How to measure your finger for rings:

Wrap a band of firm paper around the largest part of your finger. Cut off the paper where the ends meet. Lay the paper on chart at point "A". If paper ends between two sizes, order the next larger size
