

8/04/2021

Job Title: Coordinator, Sports Information

Reports to: Director, Athlete Relations

Location: Fort Lauderdale, Florida

Position Timeframe: Position will exist from hire date and will terminate May 31, 2022

The National Senior Games Association (NSGA) is a nonprofit Affiliate Organization Council member of the United States Olympic/Paralympic Committee that promotes health and wellness for adults 50 and over through education, fitness and sport. Since 1987, NSGA has governed the biennial National Senior Games, the largest multi-sport championship event in the world for seniors. The Association is comprised of 53 independent Member Games that conduct qualifying competition events. The 2022 National Senior Games presented by Humana will take place May 10-23, 2022 in Fort Lauderdale, Florida and surrounding communities. The Games will be home to a projected 10,000 athletes plus family members and visitors over the fourteen days of competition including Flame Arrival Celebration, the Celebration of Athletes and The Village.

Job Summary

The Coordinator, Sports Information of the 2022 National Senior Games presented by Humana (22NSG) will have the primary responsibility for the organization and execution of sports information for the 22NSG. The position will provide communication and administrative leadership to the athletes, coaches, visitors, vendors and contractors as necessary to perform their Games duties. This position is responsible for the management of the sports information area in the village to support The Games as a whole. Sports Information is involved in day-to-day operations. Likely areas of responsibility include:

- athlete communication;
- ceremony information;
- city information;
- transportation information;
- schedule information;
- venue information;

This position will work collectively with each functional area, from the time of their selection through the post-Games debrief. This position will work directly with the National Senior Games Association staff (NSGA) to ensure the athletes, coaches and visitors experience the athletic, physical, cultural and social benefits of participating in the 22NSG while visiting Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

8/04/2021

Job Requirements Preferred (Education, Knowledge, Skills)

- Minimum 5 years' experience in day-to-day sports events management
- Background and passion for sports and the power it has to change individuals, communities and social structure
- Track record of demonstrating strong financial management and organizational leadership
- Negotiating skills and ability to work with senior management in the public and private sectors
- Exceptional communication skills, organizational, and administrative skills
- Demonstrated success in effective team building to ensure accomplishment of team goals
- An ability to work as a team member within the guidelines of the National Senior Games Association
- Bachelor's degree preferred

Job Responsibilities (to include but not limited to):

- Provide leadership and communicate with the NSGA Staff
- Manage the Sports Information booth in The Village
- Answer athlete questions regarding sports and venue information
- Provide a daily account for visits and FAQs that are asked at the booth
- Provide customer service as needed to athletes/spectators as needed
- Provide 22NSG staff with information as requested
- Daily presence during The Games dates from May 10-23, 2022
- Actively prepare and participate in all scheduled meetings and conference calls as needed
- Ensure the safety and well-being of the NSG athletes, coaches, friends & family, and volunteers
- Support all marketing, website, and social media programs as needed
- Provide appropriate support for all non-sports events
- Attend in person meetings in Fort Lauderdale as requested
- Work in close coordination with the 22NSG team and others to ensure overall success of The Games
- Provide necessary post-Games reports and other duties as required
- All other duties as assigned